WHILE the Goebelites of the Senate WHILE the Goobelites of the Senate are searching for some Democratic Minister to open their sideshow with prayer, the Republicans have sufficient standing to do their own praying. On Tuesday the proceedings opened with prayer by Senator WILLIAM H. COX of this city.

It is pretended that Senator Goi-BEL, suffering from a ghastly and mortal wound, was still able to be propped up in bed and affix his signa-ture to a "proclamation" announcing his accession to the Governorship. And yet there are reputable physicians who'll not think any man who was shot as Mr. GORBEL was could possi-bly nerform such an act. bly perform such an act. ,

THE political ghouls who have been so gleefully making political capital out of the death of Senator Gorbit. Will soon find themselves a sorry lot of political bankrupts. They first charged his assassination to the Republican party generally; and at least one of their non-partisant?) Judgesone M. C. SAUPTLEY—averred that Governor TAYLOR himself was the assassin! But now, when they begin to investigate the facts, not a mother's son of them can tell where GORBIL was when the bullet struck him, or where he fell after he was shot. However, they have given the location a range of 12 feet long by 8 feet wide—and that's as near the truth as could be expected of a Goebellite.

Ir any of THE LEDGER'S readers are curious to know what is thought of Kentucky's Legislature by people of other states, they may get some idea from the following clipping from The Cincinnati Times-Star:

from the following emping from the Cincinnati Times-Star:

GOVERNMENT BY RESOLUTION.

To term the acts of the Democratic Legislators at Frankfort the play of schoolboys is a compliment. Properly speaking, they belong in the kindergarten. The attempted scheme their heads the ridicule of a people endowed with a keen sense of the humorous. Having failed to command recognition of their farcical action in unseating Governor TAYLOR, in inducting a dying man into office and securing possession by succession, they add to the burlesque by the acts were valid and in force and effect. The three tailors of Tooley street were statesmen compared to the Democratis in the Kentucky Legislature. The action of the page boys of the House and the Senate is now anxiously awaited.

Contests Over the Kentucky State Offices Have Become Very Much Simplified.

LEGAL TANGLE STRAIGHTENED OUT.

Multiplicity of Injunction Suits to Be Consolidated and to Be Tried As Soon As Possible.

The First Hearing Will Be Before
Judge Emmett Field at Louisville-Appeals May Be Taken
By Either Side.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 22.—The contests over the state offices are very much simplified by an agreement entered into between republican and democratic attorneys, representing both sides and straightening out the legal tangle over the multiplicity of injunction saits over the title to the governorship. The gist of the agreement is that there shall be a speedy trial in the courts on an agreed case involving all the issues, the first hearing to be before Judge Emmett Field at Louisville. The agreement in full is as follows:

There are now pending in the Jefferson circuit court two suits entitled respectively W. S. Taylor x. J. C. W. Beckham, etc., and John Marshall is, W. S. Taylor and John Marshall is, W. S.
